An Irishman's Diary

Dublin Zoo's Baby Elephant

Letter to the Editor:

Exmoor, 42-7, Limerick, S. Ireland

I understand that Dublin Zoo is currently home to a new baby elephant. As an Irishman, I am excited to see this addition to our zoo. The baby elephant is likely to be the center of attention for visitors. I hope that the zoo staff will take good care of it, ensuring that it is healthy and well-socialized. It is always reassuring to see these majestic creatures in a safe and controlled environment. Let's support our local zoo and enjoy this wonderful addition to our community.

Yours sincerely,

Jonathan O'Connor

Editor's Note:

The article discusses the arrival of a baby elephant at Dublin Zoo, highlighting the excitement and anticipation it has generated among visitors. The editor encourages readers to support the zoo and enjoy this new addition to the community.